Special Processing Unit (SPU);
Damages Decision Based on Proffer;
Influenza (Flu) Vaccine; Guillain-
Barre Syndrome (GBS)

Nancy Routh Meyers, Turning Point Litigation, Greensboro, NC, for petitioner.

Ida Nassar, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On September 17, 2019, Darla Johnson filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) caused by an influenza vaccine administered on September 23, 2016. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccine was administered within the United States, that no party has ever filed a civil action or received compensation for Petitioner’s injury, and that her condition has persisted for more than six months. Petition at 1, 5. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 12, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for GBS. On June 8, 2021, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $103,604.17 comprised of $101,000.00 for pain and suffering, and $2,604.17 for out-of-pocket medical and related expenses. Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $103,604.17 comprised of $101,000.00 for pain and suffering, and $2,604.17 for out-of-pocket medical and related expenses in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION¹

I. Procedural History

On September 17, 2019, Darla Johnson (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation (“petition”) under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34, as amended. She alleges that, as a result of receiving the influenza vaccine on September 23, 2016, she suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome (GBS). See Petition. On November 6, 2020, respondent filed his Vaccine Rule 4(c) report, concluding that petitioner suffered GBS as defined by the Vaccine Injury Table, within the Table timeframe. ECF No. 32. On November 12, 2020, Chief Special Master Corcoran issued a ruling on entitlement, finding that petitioner was entitled to compensation for a GBS Table injury. ECF No. 33.

II. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded a lump sum of $103,604.17, for all damages, including $101,000.00 representative of pain and suffering, and $2,604.17 representative of out-of-pocket medical and related expenses. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner is entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

¹ This Proffer does not include attorneys’ fees and costs, which the parties intend to address after the Damages Decision is issued.

III. Form of the Award

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment, as described below, and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following: A lump sum payment of $103,604.17 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.² Petitioner agrees.

Respectfully submitted,
